 trustees for whom? - defining the guiding principles - keeping score and calling penalties - supporting pastoral leadership - keeping the board on track -- The staff plays management -- Excellence of execution - a comprehensive staff - the pastor's team - two degrees of separation - investment, not expense -- Part four: Do we have the right equipment? -- Organizational documents set up the game -- Creating a corporate "pair o' docs" - clarity about the bylaws - what the bylaws need to cover
 - how the bylaws need to be changed - how guiding principles authorize the pastor - constructing the guiding principles - mission principles, boundary principles - accountability principles -- Schedules keep the game in play -- The influence of the annual calendar - proportions of the meeting agenda - process for training and selection - the wisdom of a transition plan -- Affiliations relate the team to its league -- Winning in the congregational leagues - winning in the presbyterian leagues - winning in the episcopal leagues - winning in the emerging leagues.

MacArthur, John, 1939-. Twelve extraordinary women : [how God shaped women of the Bible and what he wants to do with you]. [Escondido, Calif.] : Christianaudio Seed, c2008. Eve: mother of all living -- Sarah: hoping against hope -- Rahab: a horrible life redeemed -- Ruth: loyalty and love -- Hannah: a portrait of feminine grace -- Mary: blessed among women -- Anna: the faithful witness -- The Samaritan woman: finding the water of life -- Martha and Mary: working and worshiping -- Mary Magdalene: delivered from darkness -- Lydia: a hospitable heart opened. Read by Tamara Kaye Adams. Celebrated for their courage, vision, hospitality, and spiritual giftedness, it's no wonder women were so important to God's plan revealed in the Old and New Testaments. It wasn't their natural qualities that made these women extraordinary but the power of the one true God whom they worshiped and served.

- CD 241.53 BON Bonhoeffer, Dietrich, 1906-1945. The cost of discipleship. [Escondido, Calif.] : Hovel Audio, c2008.
Read by Paul Michael. What can the call to discipleship, the adherence to the word of Jesus, mean today to the businessman, the soldier, the laborer, or the aristocrat? What did Jesus mean to say to us? What is his will for us today? Drawing on the Sermon on the Mount, [the author] answers these timeless questions by providing a seminal reading of the dichotomy between "cheap grace" and "costly grace." "Cheap grace," [he] wrote, "is the grace we bestow on ourselves ... grace without discipleship.... Costly grace is the gospel which must be sought again and again, the gift which must be asked for, the door at which a man must knock.... It is costly because it costs a man his life, and it is grace because it gives a man the only true life." [This book] is a compelling statement of the demands of sacrifice and ethical consistency from a man whose life and thought were exemplary articulations of a new type of leadership inspired by the Gospel, and imbued with the spirit of Christian humanism and a creative sense of civic duty. -Back cover.
